ABOUT WOTA

1994, The Lord of the Harvest burden Apostle Barry Ilunga to move out from pastoral ministry to pioneer a missionary agency WOTA (World Outreach Team Action) that will serve as vehicle for capacity building of the church and sending of their best service men for Jesus Christ in the region beyond.

WOTA is a servant missionary mobilizing and sending agency serving the body of Christ in Zambia and Africa enabling local churches and fellowships to go and find their place of obedience in the service of Jesus Christ beyond own comfort zone and capacity building for effective service as Salt of earth and Light of the world at home.

The Zambian Missionary agency WOTA sees the church in Zambia and Africa placing intentionally best African service men for Jesus Christ in 10/40 windows and around the world for the furtherance of the world Christian movement in our generation until Jesus Christ returns.

OUR AIM!

WOTA's aim is the furtherance of the Christian faith in our generation for the benefit of the next generation of people and peoples. WOTA sees "mission" as the 'call' upon every believer's life and the primary purpose of the church to serve communities, societies, and nations for God. We seek by God's grace the participation of the Zambian local churches in obeying the great commission as we together send missionaries in the region beyond.

WOTA's motto in sending missionaries is "From Zambia back to Jerusalem". It is time for the church in Zambia to be part of the missionary force and look forward to be part of that feast in the kingdom of heaven which the Lord Jesus shall host together with Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and invitation to some from the east, west, north and south to the celebrating moment in Glory most probably for the fulfilment of the great commission.

OUR VISION!

Running for the Prize at the master's hand in all we do in this life, knowing very well that this only opportune time to live by faith while here on earth is so short!

To see the Zambian (African) church mobilized, equipped for meaningful deployment of Christian workers and involvement in the world Christian movement.
